

What?
Damon

Phillip
We spoke both Spanish and English in my house and I didn't have a speech defect.

Damon
She thinks she's a doctor when all she is, is a speech therapist for Christ's sake.

Phillip
She said there were cases—it's what she does.

Damon
Her brain is human flypaper for things she hears and doesn't research.

Phillip
She was concerned.

Damon
Claire is always concerned.

Phillip
What is going on with you?

Damon
Nothing.

Phillip
We had a nice dinner.

Damon
It was fine.

Phillip
It was nice and pleasant and everyone had a good time.

Damon
I guess.

Phillip
You did. Now you are overreacting and being obsessive, but in the moment, we were all pretty happy.

Damon
I just wish she hadn't said a couple of things. They were great though.

Phillip

Yes. They were... I'm going to look it up. It was passing advice from someone who cares and loves us.

Damon

Was I okay?

Phillip

You warmed up.

Damon

I tried.

Phillip

You were defensive.

Damon

I'm an asshole. It's just hard to let all those old fights go. I feel them stuck in me. (Beat)
Why do you love an asshole?

Phillip

Because he has blue eyes that stayed blue.

Damon

That was awful. I'm sorry.

Phillip

What matters is she loves you. (Beat) She loves you. You have the life she expected.
Did you want a family when you were growing up or did she?
